

Handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'h'. The page features a series of horizontal lines: a solid top blue line, a dashed red middle line, and a solid bottom blue line. At the top left, there is a diagram showing the stroke order for writing the uppercase 'H' and lowercase 'h'. The uppercase 'H' is formed by three strokes: a vertical line down on the left (1), a horizontal line across the middle (2), and a vertical line down on the right (3). The lowercase 'h' is formed by two strokes: a vertical line down (1) and a curved line starting from the middle of the vertical line, going up to the top blue line, then down to the bottom blue line (2). Below the diagram, there are four rows of handwriting practice. The first row contains seven uppercase 'H's and seven lowercase 'h's, each with a dashed line indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The second row contains seven uppercase 'H's and seven lowercase 'h's, each with a dashed line indicating the starting point and direction of the stroke. The third and fourth rows are empty, providing space for independent practice.

Handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'o'. The page features four sets of horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first set contains two solid black circles of different sizes. The second set contains four pairs of dashed circles, each pair consisting of a larger circle and a smaller circle. The third set contains four pairs of dashed circles, each pair consisting of a larger circle and a smaller circle. The remaining two sets are empty for independent practice.

Handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'L'. The page features a thick black horizontal line at the top. Below it are several sets of handwriting lines, each consisting of a solid blue top line, a dashed red middle line, and a solid blue bottom line.

The first set of lines includes a diagram showing the stroke order for writing the letter 'L'. A vertical line is drawn from the top blue line to the bottom blue line, with a downward arrow and the number '1' next to it. A horizontal line is drawn from the end of the vertical line to the right, with a rightward arrow and the number '2' next to it.

The second set of lines shows the letter 'L' written in a dashed black font, repeated seven times across the lines.

The third set of lines shows the letter 'L' written in a light gray font, repeated seven times across the lines.

The remaining four sets of lines are empty, providing space for independent practice of the letter 'L'.

Handwriting practice sheet for the letter 'I'. The page features a thick black horizontal line at the top. Below it are several sets of handwriting lines, each consisting of a solid blue top line, a dashed red middle line, and a solid blue bottom line.

The first set of lines includes a diagram showing the stroke order for writing the letter 'I'. The uppercase 'I' is formed by a vertical downward stroke (1) and a horizontal rightward stroke (2) at the top. The lowercase 'i' is formed by a vertical downward stroke (1) and a small dot (2) placed above the middle dashed line.

The second set of lines contains a row of dashed uppercase 'I's for tracing, with a small '1' above the first one indicating the starting point and direction.

The third set of lines contains a row of dashed lowercase 'i's for tracing, with a small '1' above the first one indicating the starting point and direction.

The remaining four sets of lines are blank, providing space for independent practice of the letter 'I'.
